Privacy Policy

What data do we collect

The only information we collect is that which you provide us in the initial membership application, attendance records from each calendar event and routine administrative transactions. We will only use this information for the purposes of administering the Club. This may mean your contact details will from time to time appear on event flyers or on the website where you are the organiser of an activity or a participant that others may need to contact. Committee Members will have access to all membership details and Club records but these will not be passed to a third party without consideration of the need by the Committee.

Except where legally required, personal information will not be intentionally disclosed to any third party without your express consent, other than mentioned in this Policy.

Media

Any media you provide to us or upload to the website, such as images or articles will, where practicable, acknowledge ownership and will be downloadable from our website by the general public unless you specifically request otherwise. Any such content provided for or uploaded on the website that is considered unsuitable or inappropriate may be removed and/or referred to the Committee for consideration. This policy also applies to any content from a linked website that may be embedded in our website.

Website Analytics

We do not carry out any personal tracking or routine surveillance of activity on our website or use cookies for any form of analytics. We do use Google general analytics but this does not contain any personal or private data that could in any way identify any individual.
